SAFEGUARD is clearly one of the most exciting additions to the WA stallion ranks for some years, offering WA Breeders something that is normally only available on the east coast.

- ▶ PEDIGREE: By EXCEED AND EXCEL, considered the world's greatest sire of 2 year olds, out of PRESERVE (by CANNY LAD) a Group 1 winner at two AND a half-sister to DENMAN. He is also a three quarter brother to ARCHIVES (by HELMET), the first stakes winner in Australia by that sire, AND has a Golden Slipper winner in each of his first four (4) generations.
- ▶ PERFORMANCE: SAFEGUARD won his first three starts including the Group 3 ATC Kindergarten Stakes (the same as HALLOWED CROWN, FURNACES and ASTER) and the Group 3 MRC Vain Stakes, before going down narrowly in the Group 2 VRC Danehill Stakes.
- ▶ PHYSIQUE: "Safeguard always looked a precocious juvenile. He was a high quality colt who we identified very early as our leading Golden Slipper contender. He was a very well-muscled strong type with faultless confirmation and has great depth and balance with a huge action." (Darley's Managing Director Henry Plumtree)
.. and he is passing those qualities to his first foals...

President's Report

■ Dear Breeders and Racing Enthusiast.

Welcome to the 2016 Stallions edition of Sunspeed magazine.

There have been number of positive developments in the industry over the 12 months since the last Stallions Edition of Sunspeed.

Our WA Magic Millions yearling sale saw the clearance rate head up again to a healthy 80% and the average price to $40,934, a vast improvement on the previous year's sale results.

For this year's sale we reverted to a "combined" catalogue, with all the horses catalogued on an even playing field, rather than splitting them between Book 1, the Premier Session and Book 2. This, coupled with the two day format, proved a successful combination.

The pre-sale period this year saw the industry (Breeders, trainers, owners and Perth Racing) working together to promote racehorse ownership more productively than in recent memory and the benefits were evident. This is still an area that needs constant and persistent attention over future years. Raising the racing industries profile throughout the population of WA is critical to increasing our ownership base and the sustainability of the industry.

The horses sold at the Perth Magic Millions this year are the first to be included within the extended Westspeed bonus scheme, WESTSPEED PLATINUM for racehorses by WA based sires. This fantastic new arm of Westspeed offers bonuses of $10,000 extra for 2014 born racehorses at no extra fee for the owners. That takes the winning stake for a Saturday to more than $70,000.

A lovely prospect, when the yearlings average $40,000 at sale!

Western Australia continues to be a fabulous place to own and race a horse. Our average sale price and the training fees are well below eastern states pricing, yet our stakes when you include Westspeed compare favourably with every other racing jurisdiction in Australia. The WA bred product continues to be the best value for money place in Australia to race a horse.

Which brings me to breeding. Our breeding population has dropped significantly over the last 5 years in WA. Mares going to stud has dropped by 32% from 2227 mares bred in 2011 compared to 2015 where WA put 1511 mares to stud, a drop of 716 mares. We won't see the full effects of this drop in breeding numbers for 4 to 5 years.

This represents opportunity to breed your own racehorse and be running within a smaller pool of horses for the same incredible stake money. WA has some excellent stallion options available to you, at realistic prices. Maybe 2016 is the year to breed your own winner.

Don't forget the Stallion Tender Scheme (see details inside). It offers hearty discounts off some of WA's best sires.

Currently, the breeding population of Australia are negotiating proposed new rules by Racing Australia and we are trying to keep all our members abreast of new information as it comes to hand.

Thoroughbred BreedersWA are being vocal to make sure breeder's interests are being taken into consideration. If you have any queries on the proposal by Racing Australia, please contact our office.

A big thank you to all the committee and Amanda Abraham, our Executive Officer, for their work on all issues breeding throughout the year.

Wishing everyone a successful breeding season,

Jarrad Noske

Jarrad with Noel Carter.

One of the delightful places to meet and have a yarn with someone is the International On The Water Hotel, (formerly the Ascot Inn) on the tranquil Swan River in Perth's racing suburb, Ascot.

I had just said good bye to my coffee companion for over an hour and the waitress observing it came over to comment on my book about Black Caviar, expressing her admiration for the champion, undefeated mare. I concurred and said "and that young bloke who has just left me was the rider of her in her first two wins."

He was, of course, Jarrad Noske who if he was in a more traditional job other than being a jockey would have been lunching with me. Instead he was wasting in preparation for mid-week and Saturday rides.

Indeed, no matter what Jarrad Noske does in the future he will always be associated with those famous rides on

2013 Perth Cup - "Talent Show"

Black Caviar. He is as much a part of the history of her great 25 wins, as Paul Revere was in presaging the American Revolution due to his famous ride, of April 1775, through the dark New England countryside, on Brown Beauty.

Both Noske and Revere were horsemen at the start of momentous events to come.

Jarrad's first ride on Black Caviar came when he was a young apprentice. Indentured to his mother Jodie, a former jockey, he was then in the first week of a three month loan to Peter Moody, to test himself in Victorian racing.

The 16 year old baby faced rider had impressed Moody with his weight of winners, more than 100 in WA at that stage, (2009), and his determined attitude.

As the leading WA apprentice, Noske's claim had already been reduced to 1.5kg.

Jarrad's attitude is something that Perth trainer Dan Morton commented on just recently. "Jarrad had the right attitude and application to his job right from the start and he still does. He is a now heavyweight rider and he has to struggle to make 54kg but like Steven Arnold he is disciplined and despite having to diet he is one of the strongest riders going around."

Author Gerard Whateley, noted in his book, that Noske 'had excelled in what proved a simple enough task.' Black Caviar, after jumping away a little awkwardly, glided up to the leader at the 300m mark before moving effortlessly to complete a five length victory over Kwassa Kwassa.

Moody said to turf reporters that they may have witnessed the start of two good careers. He was right on both counts.

A fortnight later the duo were partnered in the black type Listed race the Blue Sapphire Stakes. Tardy at the start the $1.50 favourite was in the ruck early but Noske instead of dropping back pressed her to lead. It was a judgment call on the young rider's part and he pushed her forward after he felt she seemed to be going at only half pace.

Those that expected Black Caviar to falter late in the race were proved wrong. Noske was vindicated by another hollow win, beating Demerit by the same margin as in her maiden victory. The young rider knew then she was Group 1 horse of the future.

A broken wrist stopped his momentum in Victoria and after going back for the Spring Carnival, a hard time for an apprentice to gain quality rides, he returned to Perth. Homesickness was also a factor.

Most people could be forgiven for thinking that the Black Caviar experience would be Noske's finest career moment but the 2013 Perth Cup win on Talent Show trumped the earlier highlight.

Talent Show was a polar opposite to Black Caviar. The Hayden Ballantyne trained mare only gained a start in the 2013 Perth Cup because Adam Durrant's horse Chester Road was scratched.

Even more galling for that trainer was the fact was the fact that the $31 outsider beat his other runner Mr Moet by three quarters of a length, going away.

Noske rode the mare at 54kg that day -1kg overweight.

On the turn you would have bet 1000/1 on her chances as she was 13th (of 16) with a wall of horses in front of her.

However, Noske bullocked her clear in the straight, gaining victory and subsequently an 18 days suspension, by stewards, for careless riding, causing interference to Moonlight Bay at the 225m mark.

For the then 20 year old it was the high water mark. "There is nothing like winning the major cup race in your home state."

It still remains his best career highlight to date although he has won other quality races, including Bunbury, Boulder and Northam Cups, a Bunbury Stakes and an Apprentices Cup. However, another major moment for him was winning on maiden performer Secret Charge on April 13 at Pinjarra. On the face of it that may seem strange that arguably, the most respected of WA's younger jockeys, would consider a provincial maiden win as a great moment.

But this was for a special man, Bill Prins, grandfather to both Jarrad and his younger jockey sister, Jerry.

Prins is a writer's delight. A mild mannered approachable person he would have to be the most patient man since the Biblical character Job walked the earth. He is also a worthy rival to Waiting for Godot, an absurdist play of a couple of characters who wait forever for an arrival of someone. For Prins it was, seemingly, an endless wait for a victory.

Having raced some 20 horses since 1977, winning was something that had always eluded the now retired milkman. If Benny Hill's 'Ernie' was the fastest milkman in the West, Prins was the slowest, when it came to racing.

Enter Jarrad.

At his first ride on his grandfather's horse, Secret Charge, a galloper in fact having his first start, he won, comfortably. "It was a special moment because not only had Pop waited all those years to get a win but he also had to wait for a while to get Secret Charge on the track. After purchasing him as a weanling, Secret Charge needed joint surgery as a two year old."

In fact the four year old still has had only three race starts, running second and fifth after the victory.

That Pinjarra win was a real family affair because the horse was trained by Jeff Noske and his wife Jodie is a partner with her father. Prins' wife, Aileen, was also on course to see her husband's first win.

Family is important to Jarrad and the 2015 Kalgoorlie Cup was a momentous family occasion. "I remember that well because it is a race I would like to win. For Jerry to win such a race on Woodsville, trained by Dad, and become the first female rider to do so, was emotional for us all, including our grandparents. That gave me such a buzz."

Jerry landed more honours for the family just two months later when she won the Group 2 WA Guineas on the Dan Morton -trained Man Booker, in a thriller over Spirit Bird (Craig Williams). Again, she is the only female rider to have won that classic and she did it for a female syndicate of 23 owners.

Still the siblings are not beyond having a spat, or two, as Jarrad recalled: "I remember, one morning at track work, we were exercising a couple of Damian Winn's horses and we had an argument over something. The exercise gallop became a total wreck and we both got off our horses and stormed off in different directions with Jerry calling me an 'arsehole.' This left Damian holding the horses and wondering what on earth had happened. He had to ring us both later to get a report on the morning exercise!"

Jarrad regards his parents as very supportive. "Dad is as good a horseman as I have seen and I remember him being as white as a ghost when a horse I was riding, as a kid, bolted on me.

Obviously they imbued their son with a love of racing from an early stage. Veteran racing writer, Ernie Manning, recalls the days when he was in the Racing Radio studios (now TAB Radio): "This kid used to ring in and win all our quizzes. We later found out it was Jarrad Noske."

Jarrad recalled that although he was no great school student his interest in racing led him to 'swot up' on Miller's Guide when he was a primary school pupil. "I would ring the studio while being driven to school," he said.

Noske is also respectful of senior jockeys. "Brad Rawiller is an inspiration because he has battled weight problems but became a top rider in his 30's because he never gave up."

Of WA riders he believes there is a good spirit fostered in the Jockeys room by the senior rider such as Troy Turner, Jason Whiting and Peter Knuckey and he considers Craig Staples an excellent president of the WA Jockeys Association. However, Noske does not intend to be in the game for as long as them.

"I am currently 23 years of age so I will probably ride for another 10-12 years. By that time I will be looking for a property between Pinjarra and Bunbury to run beef cattle on and train some horses."

Noske's objective to ride about 65 winners a year is something he has consistently done in the last few years.

Jarrad's regret in racing is that, as a 17 year old, he was involved in a urine substitution swabbing scandal. Stewards suspended him for six months, for providing his urine, in a vial, to assist another apprentice, Andrew Castle (also suspended). He later had this suspension decreased by a month.

"It was a reminder to me that you have to think before you do things and it provided a good lesson in life for me."

That mea culpa, the ability to be responsible for one's own actions, reveals he has continued to grow and develop wisdom quite apart from being an accomplished jockey.

The best is yet to come.

BROODMARE SERVICE SUBSIDY

RWWA has introduced an initiative to keep black type winning mares in Western Australia by providing a financial incentive to a group or listed winning mare served by a Western Australian based stallion in her first year as a broodmare. This incentive takes the form of a subsidy payable to the registered breeder depending on the level of black type achieved in the mares racing career.

Group Winning Mare

Subsidy to a Western Australian based breeder of 100% of the advertised service fee to a maximum of $15,000 for the mares first season as a broodmare.

Listed Winning Mare

Subsidy to a Western Australian based breeder of 50% of the advertised service fee to a maximum of $7,500 for the mares first season as a broodmare.

Payment will be made to the contact breeder registered with the Australian Stud Book upon lodgement of the first mare return and submission of the subsidy claim form to the RWWA Racing Department. Mares are only eligible to accrue a single subsidy, irrespective of the number of group and listed races won.

Bay / Brown – 2000 - 16hh

- By one of the great sires in the world STORM CAT out of a Gr.1 winner, a half-brother to a Gr.1 winner and now himself the sire of a Gr.1 winner!
- Outstanding first Australian crop foals. Wonderful strength and substance that look early types suited to our racing here.
- Consistently the sire of over 80% winners to runners in the past few seasons in the northern hemisphere - simply outstanding!
- He has a higher winners to runners ratio than the likes of Redoute's Choice, Snitzel, Exceed And Excel, Fastnet Rock etc.
- Fantastic average earnings per runner of $85k (colts) and $65k (fillies) proving his stock are racing in high grade races and beating the best in the NH.

NATURAL BLITZ (AUS)

Bay – 1999 – 15.3 hh

Natural Blitz has to be one of the best performed racehorses to stand at Stud in WA. His sire and dam line are a formidable combination and should nick perfectly with our Australasian pedigrees.

Well proven at weight-for-age, he was a tough and durable racehorse... a Group Winner in three States of Australia. After six high class seasons of racing against the best throughout his career, he retired sound.

He has had very limited opportunities in his career at stud, but has produced a number of city winners; and 2 year olds as well as horses that train on over a bit of ground. With just 37 runners to date he has produced 21 winners (57%) including the enduring Ningaloo Blitz (10 wins), the stakes winning Destroy (Bunbury Cup) and the stakes performed Blitzem Someday (WA Breeders Classic LR).

Natural Blitz is the ideal choice for those wishing to breed a sound racehorse that will train on.

SAFEGUARD (AUS)

Chestnut – 2010 – 15.3 hh

SAFEGUARD is clearly one of the most exciting additions to the WA stallion ranks for some years. He:

- is a dual Group winning son of EXCEED AND EXCEL, considered the world's greatest sire of 2 year olds;
- is out of PRESERVE (by CANNY LAD) who was a Group 1 winner at two and ranked the second top filly of her generation AND a half-sister to DENMAN, also a Group One winner and sire; and
- has a Golden Slipper winner in each of his first four (4) generations.

And he could run! SAFEGUARD won his first three starts including the Group 3 ATC Kindergarten Stakes and the Group 3 MRC Vain Stakes, before going down narrowly in the Group 2 VRC Danehill Stakes. In the year that the Darley colt SIDESTEP ran second to OVERREACH (both by EXCEED AND EXCEL) in the Golden Slipper, it was SAFEGUARD that Darley considered their best Slipper chance.

THOROUGHBRED BREEDERS WA

HE'S LISTED - HERITAGE/THREE SISTERS

The very popular He's Listed aka 'Odie' and his even more popular owner and rider Donna Graham are very deserving winners of this month's Off the Track competition prize pack. A recent run of bad luck and unfortunate injuries for Donna have caused this effervescent, cheerful and always helpful lady to question her love for horses plus her commitment and dedication to the Thoroughbred racing industry as a whole.

When not clerking throughout WA at different racetracks, helping youngsters learn the ropes at early morning trackwork, training in the difficult art of dressage or attending a Show Horse day or Adult Riding Club rally, Donna and Odie are always on hand and willing to help RWWA and Off the Track with a video or photo shoot (as pictured). Never one to say no, Donna has always made herself, Odie and her other horses available and they are greatly appreciated.

"The tide has changed Donna and your good luck is in! Off the Track thank you for your support and wish you nothing but good things in the future." ■

KEEPING IT REAL

REAL COMPETITION

"I was thrilled with the yearlings we purchased out of the Perth sale this year and hope we have as much success with these as we have had out of the sale in the past. There was strong competition on some of the ones we had earmarked however the great thing was we had them all sold within days."

Dan Morton

4TH LEADING BUYER, 8 YEARLINGS AVERAGING $64,500

REAL POSITIVITY

"There was a real buzz and positivity around this year's Perth Magic Millions sale. We as Western Breeders Alliance were very happy with how our draft presented which created a lot of interest and the results showed, being 2nd by total of averages $63,500 and at almost 80% clearance. Moving forward toward 2017 sales I'm confident in where the market is heading and I don't think there is a better place to race horses with the Platinum Westspeed Bonuses giving owners a chance to take home nearly $80,000 for 2 & 3YO city races. Why buy a horse interstate that is not Westspeed eligible? As breeders and vendors in WA we need to strive to offer a quality product so we can create the interest our sales deserve, locally and internationally."
