

Magic ride for WA breeders

Vega Magic is the latest Western Australian-bred galloper to go to another level after transferring to the Eastern States.

A homebred for Ascot-based brothers George & Wally Daly, he is peaking at just the right time for the $10 million The Everest (1200m) at Randwick on October 14. Vega Magic (Lope De Vega) is the current $6 second-favourite for the mega-rich, weight-for-age sprint behind Golden Slipper winner She Will Reign ($4.60).

He farewelled Perth with a Group 3 victory in the Scahill Stakes last December and is unbeaten for Lindsay Park in the G1 Goodwood, LR Regal Roller Stakes and G1 Memsie Stakes this year.

"Vega Magic is our first Group 1 winner as breeders," Wally Daly said. "He's rapidly becoming the 'people's horse' over there but will always be a WA-bred!"

A roll-call of recent interstate stakes winners from the Sunspeed State includes;

Black Heart Bart / Scenic Lodge

With prizemoney of $3.73 million, Black Heart Bart is the leading earner for Champion WA Sire Blackfriars. He launched a successful season in the G1 Memsie Stakes (1400m) and continued in the G1 Underwood (1800m), G1 Orr Stakes (1400m) and G1 Futurity Stakes (1400m).

Her dam Fiorentina (Dubai Destination) is a half-sister to G1 Dubai World Cup winner Monterosso.

Oakland Park homebred Northerly is the greatest galloper to ever emerge from the west and owners Neville & Sue Duncan are back in the spotlight with Snitzel's black-type winners Jukebox (G3 Vain Stakes) and Ducimus (LR Talindert Stakes).

Tick Tick Bloom also ticked up a feature win for former Oakland Park resident Viscount in the City of Warrnambool Hcp.

He Or She / Vaughn Sigley & Alan McAlister

Won five in a row at the 2015 Ascot summer carnival for his owner-breeders before they sold a half-share to a Lindsay Park syndicate. He Or She is by 27 year-old Rivercrest Park resident Kendel Star.
