

GOOD GROUP NEWS FOR YARRADALE STUD

Yarradale Stud is looking forward to more Group success at Ascot and Flemington in November.

The Gidgegannup nursery will be represented by Salorsci (Discorsi), Rockon Tommy (Vital Equine) and Silent Sedition (War Chant) in feature races on either side of the continent this month.

Salorsci has Group 1 potential according to trainer Jeff Noske. The Yarradale-bred sprinter began his summer campaign with a first-up victory in the D'Orsogna Hcp (1000m) at Belmont last month.

"He's a fighter. He gets his head in front and then keeps going. We want to get him out to a mile for the Railway Stakes."

Noske bought him as a weanling for $3,000 at the 2014 Magic Millions Winter Sale and he's earned $242,300, including $87,500 in Westspeed bonuses, for a large syndicate headed by his wife Jody.

The Noskes went back and bought his half-brother by City Place for $20,000 at the Yarradale Stud yearling sale in May. He has been named Salcity.

Rockon Tommy completed a rapid hat-trick for Eglinton trainer Bill Doughty at Belmont following a Northam maiden win on debut in September.

"He's green but Peter Knuckey reckons he got an engine," Doughty said. "He's still learning but we've got time to see if he's ready for a race like the (G2) WA Guineas."

Doughty bred Rockon Tommy from Sushi Quatro (Key Business) and he has another two fillies from the mare by Universal Ruler. She hails from a family nurtured by Gervase Park's Chris and Anthea Gales.

Yarradale stands Vital Equine in association with Rosalee Park at Serpentine. Its draft for the 2018 Perth Magic Millions will include a Vital Equine filly from Sweet Apparition. The Canny Lad mare is a half-sister to the dam of recent LR Hannans Hcp winner Disposition.

Silent Sedition remains on track for the Melbourne Cup carnival after going down less than two lengths first-up in the G1 Gilgai Stakes (1200m) at Flemington on October 7. The War Chant mare cut a foot while spelling and she will be peaking for the G1 Myer Classic (1600m) on November 4.

War Chant (USA) heads Yarradale Stud's 2017 roster at an $11,000 (inc gst) fee. The remainder of the line-up – Bradbury's Luck, Gingerbread Man, City Place (USA), Heritage and Vital Equine (Rosalee Park) – are available for $4,400 (inc gst).

SPEEDY MARE TOO GOOD IN GOLDFIELDS

Demerit mare Don't Speed finished the Goldfields season with a well-deserved victory in the Vissign Australia Hcp (1760m) on October 1.

She was a front-running winner in June and had been beaten less than a length on another three occasions before the final day in Kalgoorlie.

"She's consistent but has been a bit unlucky," part-owner and trainer Dean Nazzari said. "It's a long season and she will go down for a three-month spell in Esperance. The spring grass down there will do her the world of good."

Don't Speed is the first foal of Sunspeed (Speed Week) who also won in Kal before bone chips ended her career. "I raced the dam with Roy Harper and Martin Epis and a few mates – Brian Barnicott, Brett Royle & Jamie Flannery – have joined the partnership.

"We decided to send Sunspeed to Demerit in his first book," Nazzari added. "He's by Lonhro and was a Group winner in Melbourne. We're happy with the way it's turned out and he's siring some quality horses in Perth."

Demerit is based at Taunton Vale for a $3,300 (inc gst) service fee and studmaster Kent Johnston has upgraded the stud's website to coincide with the arrival of new sire King's Troop (Redoute's Choice).

BRILLIANT DEBUT BY KISS THE BREEZE

Electra Bloodstock manager James Christie and breeder Ben Duncan have launched Perth's juvenile season with talented filly Kiss The Breeze.

The Star Witness youngster claimed the Initial Plate (1000m) with a potent kick at Belmont. "I was more nervous than normal before the race," trainer Adam Durrant admitted. "It was like sending a kid to their first day at kindergarten but she didn't let us down."

Kiss The Breeze was purchased by Christie for $72,500 at this year's Perth Magic Millions from the Duncan family's Oakland Park draft. Her dam Paris Heart (Seignorial) is a half-sister to Oakland Park homebred Paris Petard (G3 WA Sires' Produce Stakes).

After the winner returned to scale, Durrant declared she will be a G3 Champion Fillies prospect in 12 months. "She was never on the track and didn't touch the bridle until coming to the corner. She really found the line today and there's plenty of improvement ahead."

Besides Kiss The Breeze, Electra Bloodstock syndicated colts by Magnus & Denman and fillies by Snitzel & Written Tycoon from this year's Magic Millions. Christie's family raced Tattersalls Cup winner Ma Chienne and his learning curve in the industry included stints with Coolmore Stud in the Hunter Valley and Brian Mayfield-Smith at Flemington.

Duncan's family bred WA legend Northerly and, apart from the bloodstock business, he's the Principal Distributor in Australia for Horserail.

PERFECT 10 AT LANDOR

Former Cromartry Park resident Redoutable sired Ten Outa Ten to win the Landor Cup (1800m) on October 2.

The Landor carnival in the Eastern Gascoyne is a traditional bush meeting held annually since 1921.

Ten Outa Ten was ridden by Jessica Bain to score by 5 lengths from odds-on favourite Black Cobra (Blackfriars). The Craig Wendt-trained gelding had won the Mt Clere Hcp (1400m) at Landor last year after campaigning in Broome and Esperance.

Bred by Jane Hossell, he is from Key Ambition (Key Business) who hails from John Nicolay's "Amber" family of stakes winners Amber's Double (G2 C B Cox Stakes), Strictly Amber (LR WA Premier's Cup), Sugarstone (LR Kalgoorlie Gold Cup) & Amber's Halo (G3 Hyperion Stakes).

Redoutable (Redoute's Choice) won sprints at Flemington and Moonee Valley before covering five books for Cromartry Park owners Colin and Olga McKenzie at Gingin. His best galloper was Doutable who won 11 races between Albany and Derby, including two at Belmont, for owner-trainer Jayne Busslinger.
